

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!

The man who suggested the use of these words for signs at railroad crossings is credited with having made more than $1,000,000.00. Of course a million dollars could hardly be made out of the use of these words now, but we assure you that if you will stop long enough to LISTEN to the dictates of your better judgement you will get a few marks nearer to the million class.

We want your business and we can positively furnish you the best values for the least money. To the Farmers---a few of our strong lines: Saddles and Harness, clothing of all kinds for the horse. Timber Men: We can supply your wants in such as Axes, Saws, Wedges and Sledges. To the Carpenter: We have got you, too, in the way of Hammers, Handsaws, Planes, Squares, and can supply all that goes to build a house. Just make out a list of your wants and come to us.

To the Housewife: If you want to change the looks of that long, lean husband of yours a few good feeds of the good things we have in the Grocery Line will make a change in him. Try it and see. They are cheap. We also have the largest line of Queensware in town for table use. You should call and inspect our stock now and then and keep posted.

WAGONS! WAGONS! We handle the best wagon, the Owensboro. Cook Stoves and Heating Stoves of all kinds at prices that knocks the black out. Wire Fencing---the electric weld fence is the best on the market today.

CHRISTMAS GOODS. We will soon have on display the largest line of Christmas goods ever shown in Hayti.
